VENTURE 1984

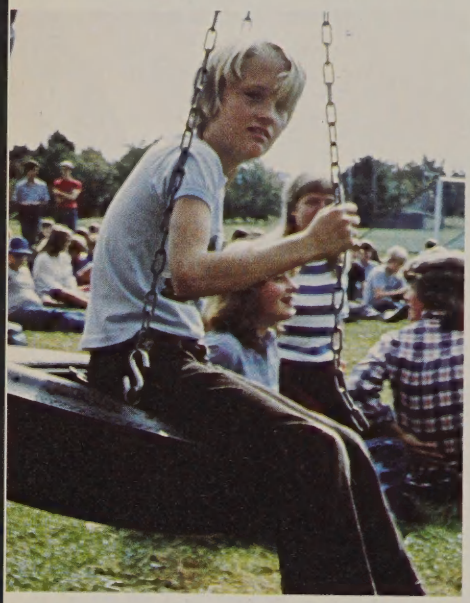
In the late 1940's, George Orwell portrayed a vision of a conforming, controlled world in his book, 1984. Since the year 1984 is here, the staff of the Venture felt that we should look at today's world, particularly in terms of U-32. We believe that U-32 is a living example of an institution that disproves Orwell's predictions. The theme of our book combines U-32's individuality--its unique ability to grow with the technological advances necessary to move into the future--and the conformity expressed throughout Orwell's book.

We hope that U-32 will always maintain its uniqueness and thus prevent the Orwellian nightmare, "...the danger with which all men are confronted today, the danger of a society of automatons who will have lost every trace of individuality, of love, of critical thought," (Erich Fromm, "Afterword", 1984), from becoming a reality.

The Staff



U-32 is a special place,
A happy smile, a cheerful face.
Within its walls are memories
Of all the things that used to be.
The teachers here are more like friends.
(I sure hope that never ends.)
Students learn about all the people who really care.
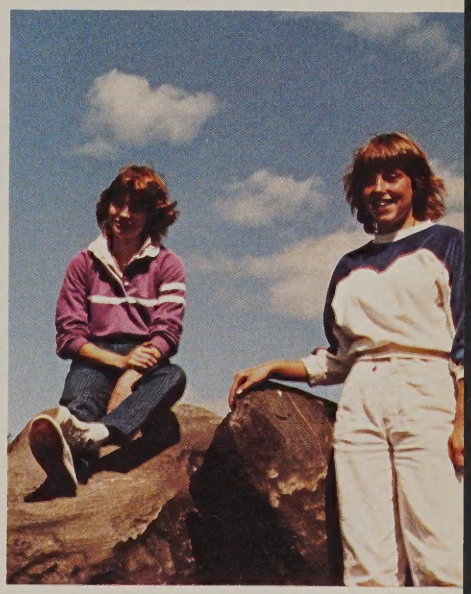
And all the love
That this school shares.

Sheila Lane



A Poem

"U-32 is a monsterous beast.
The dance, a tremendous,
thunderous, rush of tremelo
U-32 is like a carnival ride
We don't want to get on, though when we do, we don't want to get off... but we have to.

School is a place where we grow up.
It's a place of infinitie
expressions, feelings, hurts, joys, worries, loves, and hates. We want to get out and we want to get in.

Tim Macke

Laurie Ring: "I think it was really great. Talking to foreign students was the best part."

Alexia Bloch: "I think it was a very successful attempt to bring culture into a culturally deprived school."

World Day

Barnes had three basic goals for World Day. Her first goal was to help students become more aware of how other countries are similar. Her second goal was to have the faculty and students work together. Her final goal was to show that learning can take place out of class.

Foreign Cultures Invade U-32

Too often students who are about to graduate from high school or college talk about graduating into the "real world" like it was some sort of foreign country. The truth is, it is a foreign country to too many students in schools that have not brought the practical realities of that real world closer to the classroom.

Trick or treat?

When I want your opinion, I'll ask for it.

B.C.O.C.

The days go by,
And seasons pass,
A year of school is over fast,
But fate keeps us all together.
Spring and summer, winter, fall,
Yes, my friend, we've been through it all.
Good times and laughter,
Bad times and tears.

And when the world starts
spinning,
We've ventured out alone.
Remember all the good times,
When fates sunlight on us shone.

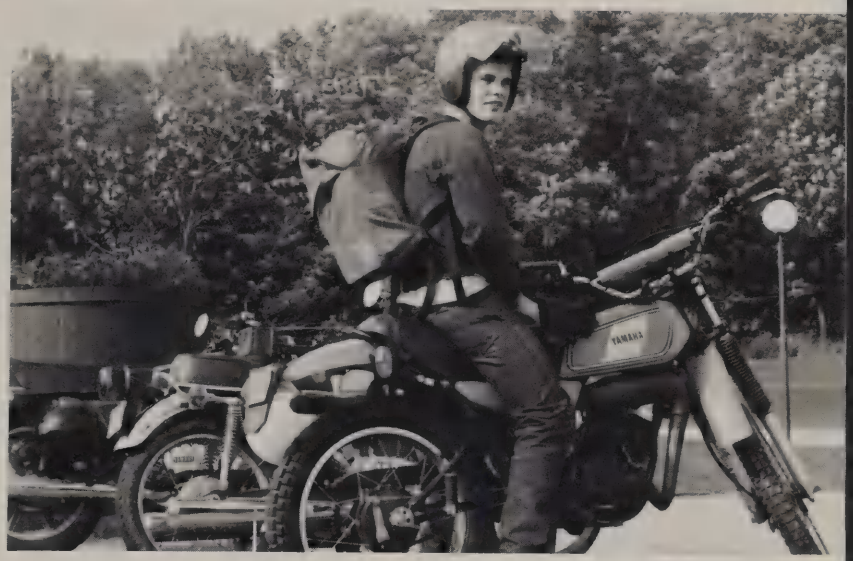
"Ultra Brite gives my smile sex appeal."

"School certainly has changed in the last 'few' years."
Juniors entertain senior citizens at U-32.

"Mirror, mirror on the wall. Who's the fairest of us all?"



"Parlez-vous Francais?" U-32's very own French cafe.

Impending truth, be known
Will I make it on my own?
Or need someone, something to keep me on the course.
For which so many others seem to feel its worth.

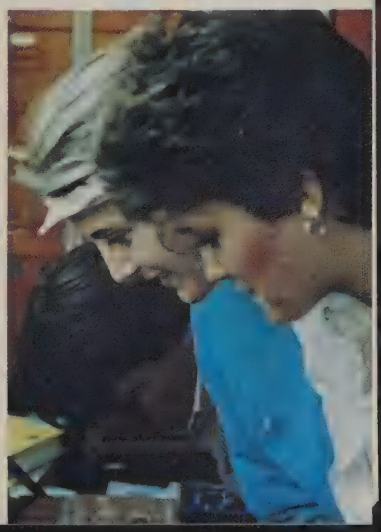
So much to do, to say, to hear,
to feel, to see
And want of this life of mine
Am I not the only one of all
Who can cause its pulse to be?

SENIORS

Aye, but nay! I have helped hand
Who by me firmly stands
In all I say and do
Through each and every move.

Do not give up the hope
The dreams, the will, the life
For always on our journey
There is joy beyond the strife.



"The inspiration to improve is all around you."

Study, Study, Study.

U-32 is the Ritz: you can go there and let all your problems go free. It is a palace in the sky, with a little twist of nothingness.
Joey Tomasello

Love is as infinite and boundless as time itself.
Love is warmth, honesty, understanding.
Love is a time when you can be yourself.

STAFF

You gave me my wings
And taught me to fly.
You didn't hold back
You showed me the sky.
You gave me the world
On a silver tray.
You taught me of love
And the games people play.
You gave me the strength
To stand alone.
And all the confidence
To make it on my own.
You gave it all
But you'll never know.
Just how much
You helped me to grow.

Guess Who ??

Joe Kool and Company

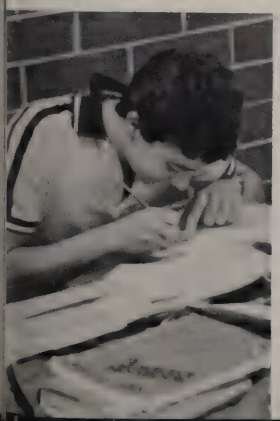
Massive Highnotes

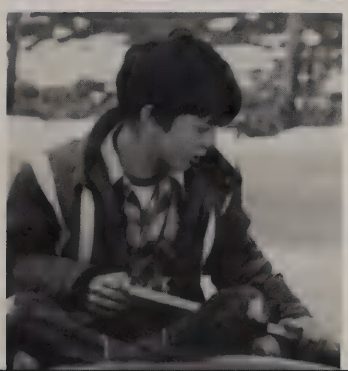
Happy Birthday Kristi ! !

Why are you wearing those shades ?

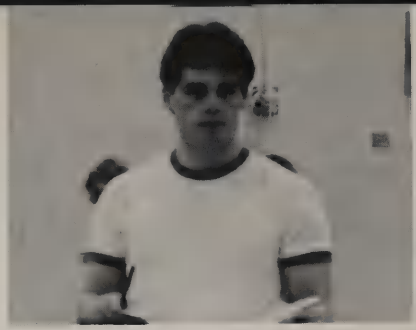
I didn't do it honest !!

I know something you don't know.





Be serious



Thou shalt not. . .

Oh, really?

We're going on the cover of what?

I don't believe you just said that!

Are you sure that goes there?

No, no, no, well, maybe. . .

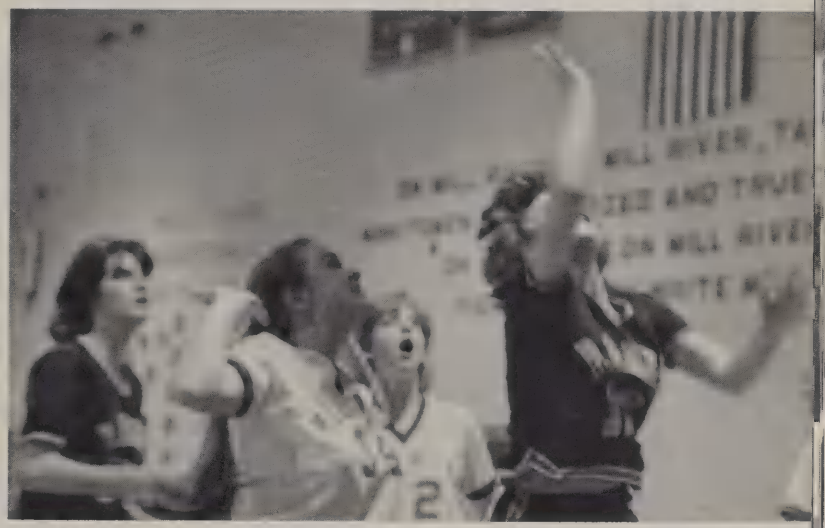
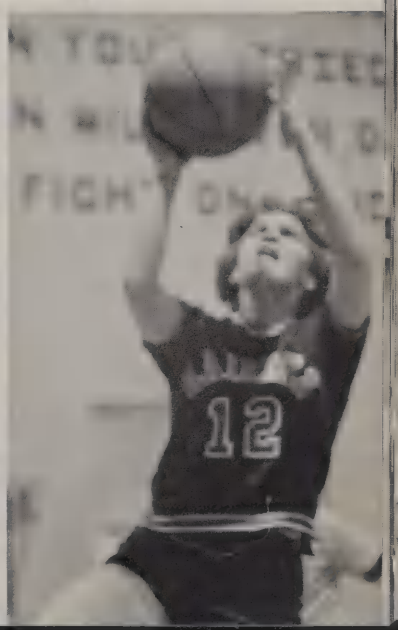
BOYS BASKETBALL

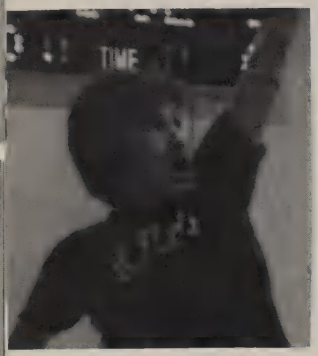
GIRLS BASKETBALL

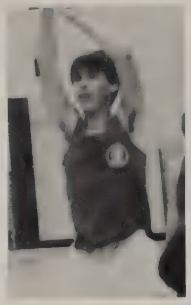




On your mark, get set...

How do you do it again?

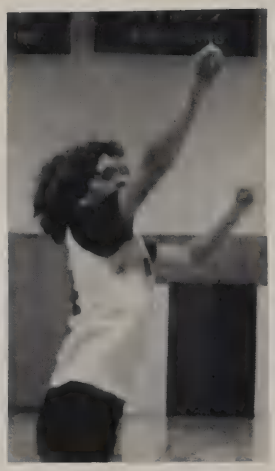




I missed?

I didn't mean it!

Say--what?!



I want the ball:

Where did the ball go?

Yes, I'm watching the guys.

Smile! we are losing.

So, there!

Which end is up?

Laying down on the job.

We have to go through it again?

Three against one???

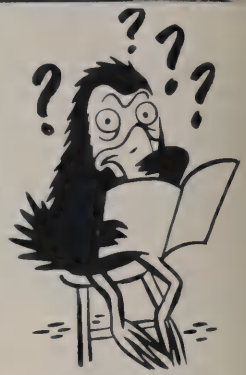
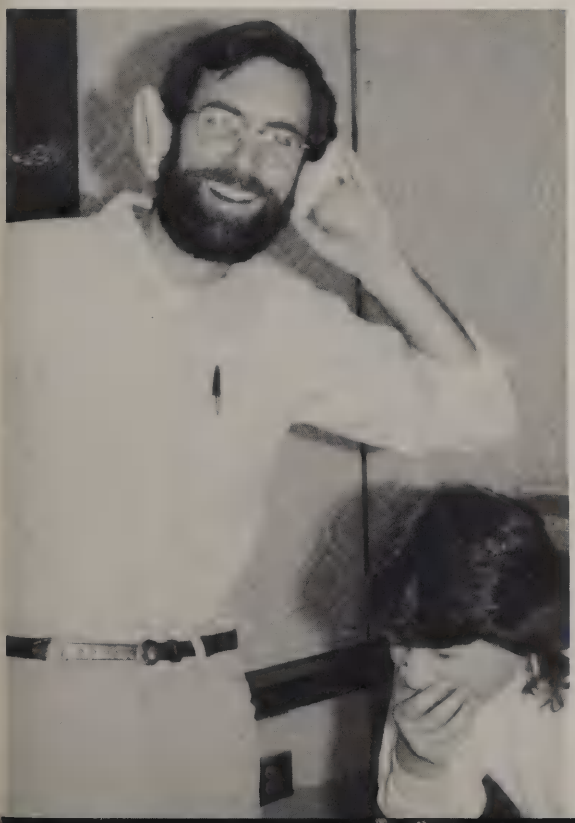
7TH GRADE PROGRAM



Science, Social Studies, Reading, and English with Brian Slopey, Ken Page, Sandy Mohlman, Irina Markova, and Pat Barberi.



Guess who?

The "modern" thinker.

Does anyone have a pot?

With this ring. . .

Hi, Mom!

On the count of three. . .

Who, me?

The whole tree, Marvin?

Three peas in a pod.

Kill it!

Sooo innocent.

...life is a great adventure,
and the worst of all fears is the fear of living.
There are many forms of success,
many forms of triumph.
But there is no other success that in any shape or way approaches that which is open to most of the many men and women who have the right ideals.

Life seems to be a collection of broken dreams.
But you have to pick up the pieces and keep on going.

Someday, there will be a new dream, but for now, it's back to reality.
